Smith Guilty of Attempted Abortion, Fined

A Hempstead Circuit Court jury last night found James E. Smith, manager of Electronics Enterprises Co. in the Proving Grounds, guilty on three counts of attempted abortion and set his fine at $100 on each count.

The trial climaxed a two-day trial, in which a young woman, Mary, prosecuting witness, told the jury that Smith tried three times to perform abortion on her, but was unsuccessful. Her baby was born last fall. Her husband was also a witness in the case.

Smith, arrested by Local, State and County Police, who testified that they found various surgical instruments and supplies in a room at the plant which Smith manages.

In action today before adjourning, Judge Lyle Brown sentenced Charles E. McDonald, Negro, to one year for grand larceny and five years for burglary, the five years being suspended.

In the case of Cora Brown vs. James Johnson Jr., paternal suit, jury trial, ruling in favor of defendant James Johnson Jr.

'Wildcat Rail Strike Is Called Off

NEW YORK (AP) — A wildcat strike of conductors against the New York Central railroad between New York and Buffalo was called off this morning seven hours after its sudden beginning.

The order ending the strike was too late, however, to avoid the general confusion caused when trains fail to run.

Val Simons, general chairman of the men on strike, telegraphed union locals:

"Due to NYCCRR obtaining federal court order enjoining strike men must obey it and return to work immediately."

Union spokesmen in Albany for the Mohawk and Hudson divisions promptly ordered their men to comply.

Earlier, they had defied orders from national headquarters on the ground Simons, of White Plains, was their boss.

Quake in Outer Mongolia Reported

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet scientists have reported that an earthquake in Outer Mongolia last Dec. 4 tossed mountains about like toy blocks and opened a fissure 150 miles long and up to 66 feet wide. "It was like the primitive chaos of Dante's Inferno," declared Prof. N. A. Florentsov in Izvestia, describing what the Russian expedition found when it arrived on the scene a month after the tremor. Rivers disappeared in the immense fissure, Florentsov said, to reappear in the form of new streams elsewhere.

The earthquake was reported by the Mongolian and Chinese Communist radio between Dec. 5 and 10. The broadcasts said that according to preliminary estimates 20 persons were killed and 13 were missing.

Smith, arrested by Local, State and County Police, who testified that they found various surgical instruments and supplies in a room at the plant which Smith manages.

In action today before adjourning, Judge Lyle Brown sentenced Charles E. McDonald, Negro, to one year for grand larceny and five years for burglary, the five years being suspended.

A Firecracker 'Bomb' Found in L. R. School

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—School Supt. Virgil Blossom said today that a firecracker "bomb" was found in an unused locker at integrated Central High School yesterday.

George Vaughn, a school custodian, found six 1/2 inch firecrackers tied in a bundle. Beside the bundle was a cigarette which had been lit and had gone out.

Blossom said the firecrackers were turned over to Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, who have been investigating the finding of an unfused, uncapped stick of dynamite in another unused locker earlier this week.

Police yesterday reported two more of a series of anonymous telephone calls that explosives were found in the school. No explosives were found. No additional calls were reported today.

Blossom announced the reinstatement of David Sontag, a 17-year-old white pupil, who has been under suspension for spilling soup on one of the school's nine Negro students in the school cafeteria. Sontag will return to classes Monday.

Snow Fails to Fall in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow bypassed central Arkansas, where it was expected to fall last night, and swept into eastern Arkansas early today.

State Police at Little Rock said all highways are reported open although some may be slick and hazardous.

Snow was reported this morning at Marianna, Forrest City, West Memphis, Hamburg, Crawfordville, Varner, Dumas and Helena.

Marianna measured from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches of snow, the most reported.

West Memphis had snow shortly after midnight, then sleet and finally rain.

Streets in many east Arkansas cities turned slushy as temperatures climbed above the low 30s later in the morning.

State Police said U. S. Highway 70, a main artery from Pine Bluff northeast to West Memphis, had patches of ice all along the route.

The Weather Bureau said a few flakes of snow fell early today at Little Rock but melted quickly.

Low temperatures early today included 16 degrees at Fayetteville, 24 at Flippin and Fort Smith, 32 at Little Rock and Walnut Ridge, 33 at Memphis and Pine Bluff and 30 at Texarkana.

Today's forecast called for partly cloudy skies through tonight, with increasing cloudiness and the possibility of a few showers tomorrow. Highs in the 40s today and lows in the 30s tonight were expected.

Fine Progress Noted — Yerger High to Undergo Evaluation for Membership in the NCA

James H. Jones, superintendent of schools, announced Friday that the North Central Association is to begin an Evaluation Study of Yerger High School on Monday, Feb. 3.

The program will begin at 7 p. m. in the Yerger High School Gymnasium. The public is invited to attend.

In making the announcement, Mr. Jones said "Membership in the North Central Association of colleges and secondary schools is the highest recognition a high school in Arkansas can achieve. We believe that Yerger High School is now ready to make application for membership in the North Central Association. Although the evaluation may not result in favorable action upon our application for membership, being in position to make application for consideration represents some fine progress."

The Evaluation Committee will consist of: Dr. Ed McCutcheon, Assistant Commissioner for Instructional Service, Department of Education, Little Rock; State, Rebecca Turner, Supervisor of Home Economics, Department of Education, Little Rock; B. C. Williams, Supervisor of Instruction, Department of Education, Little Rock; C. A. Robinson, Principal, Carver High School, Searcy; Horace Williamson, of Union County School Supervisor, El Dorado.

This Committee has been sent here by the North Central Association to make a complete evaluation of the Yerger High School. The Committee will spend three days in the observation and study of school staff and administration. Program of Studies, Pupil Activity Program, Guidance Services and School Plant. The subject areas to be studied are English and Language, Math and Science, Social Studies and Business Education, Home Economics, Trade and Agriculture, Physical Education and Music.

The committee will interview teachers, students, and patrons in an effort to determine the adequacy and the effectiveness of the school. Every factor involved in the school operation will be examined carefully.

Mr. Jones stated that "Membership in the North Central Association for Yerger High School has been one of the chief goals of the Board of Education for several years. We believe the school is now ready for such recognition and hope that the Evaluation Committee will be favorably impressed by its study." Final results of the study will not be known until the NCA Reviewing Committee makes its report at the annual dinner in March.

"It will be a real accomplishment if the school is approved for membership in the NCA this year. Much credit is due to a great many people for the fine progress that has been made at Yerger High School in the past several years."

No Doubt of Long Range Soviet Missile

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army acknowledged today there no longer is any doubt the Soviets have fired an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM).

The statement came in testimony by Secretary of the Army Bruce, made public in heavily censored form by the House Armed Services Committee.

There isn't any doubt about the fact that the Russians have launched and fired at least one and possibly two long-range, that is intercontinental ballistic missiles," Brucker told the committee Tuesday.

The rest of his testimony at this point was deleted from the published transcript.

At another point, however, Brucker said he thinks the United States is just about on a par in the development of long-range missiles and ahead in the general field of shorter-range guided missiles.

Venezuela Dead 300, Over 1000 Are Injured

By MOSS ROSENBERG

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Venezuela's "Patriotic Junta," the civilian group that brought on the fall of President Marcos Perez Jimenez with a general strike and street fighting, withheld its support today from the new government.

Estimates said 300 persons were killed and 1,000 wounded in riots and street battles from Tuesday noon until Thursday when dehard secret police of the old regime were finally driven from their headquarters. About 80 of the dead were reported found inside the smoking headquarters, some of them the political prisoners of the hated secret police.

Ex-dictator Juan D. Peron of Argentina, was reported by a reliable informant to have taken refuge in the Dominican Embassy.

Perez Jimenez, his friend and protector, has fled with his family and several aides to the Dominican Republic.

(Peron was reported yesterday to have been seeking refuge in Colombia, but he was not known to have shown up at any border point. The informant said today he had gone into hiding Tuesday night and then made a dash for sanctuary in the Dominican Embassy. None of the Peronists who have made Caracas their base for a year or more were at their known haunts. It was assumed some of them may have joined their leader in the embassy.

The Ecuadorian Embassy said 18 persons, some former Cabinet members, had taken refuge there, but declined to name them.

State Highway Dept. Needs More Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Another money problem looms for the Arkansas Highway Commission, which only recently pulled out of a financial tight.

Chairman Glen F. Wallace of Nashville said during a day-long meeting of the commission yesterday that six million dollars more annually is needed in order to match federal highway funds.

Wallace indicated that a tax to provide more revenue might be the only solution. He said the Arkansas Legislative Council is studying such a possibility.

Gov. Orval Faubus, reaction cool. Asked for comment on Wallace's remarks, Faubus said he would have to know more about the situation before saying anything.

The commission opened bids and awarded contracts yesterday on projects totaling about five million dollars. Wallace said a comparably heavy bid opening was scheduled for next month.

But, Wallace said, the public must not expect every letting to be as large as those two. He said that kind of money simply was not available to the commission.

"We lack enough money to match with the federal government on a 9-1 of 50-50 matching fund basis right now," Wallace said. "We need more money—at least six million dollars a year—to do the job that needs doing."

Last summer the Highway Commission had to cancel a contract letting because of financial difficulties. Later, an unexpectedly early federal reimbursement helped ease the fund shortage.

The commission also yesterday authorized about $485,000 worth of projects, approved a $1,163,000 program of seal coating scheduled for this summer, and okayed the purchase of 235 cars, trucks and road equipment at a cost of $607,500.

Highway Director Herbert Elbert said two additional lanes on the Little Rock and Benton interstate route from Benton across the bridge, notified the commission. Sallie River may be included in next month's bidding.

The 12 projects authorized, with estimated costs, were:
Calhoun County—Resurfacing of Weight Station driveway at intersection of U.S. Highway 167 and U.S. Highway 79 in Thornton, $3,000.

Calhoun and Dallas counties—Resurfacing of 4.7 miles of U.S. Highway 78 between Thorblon and Fordyce, $25,800.

Chicot County—Widening and reconstruction of three bridges, totaling 247 feet in length, between Lake Village and the Mississippi River levee on State Highway 144, $8,100.

Cleburne County—Widening 69-foot bridge on State Highways 16 and 25 in Heber Springs, $4,000.

Craighead County—Widening and rebuilding five bridges, totaling 213 feet in length, on State Highway 141 between Jonesboro and Greene County line, $8,400.

Independence County—Construction of Dola Creek Bridge on State Highway 122 about two miles north of Newark, along with approaches, estimated cost of $80,000. This work is subject to approval by county judge, free right of way is required and approval by Bureau of Public Roads is needed.

HILL SIGNS
REGINA, Sask. (UP) — Former Utah State halfback Jack Hill, who gained 542 yards last season, has signed his 1958 contract with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of Canada's Western Football conference. Hill averaged 4.9 yard per carry and scored four touchdowns for the Riders during the 1957 campaign.

More than 2,000 years before Christ, both the Egyptians and Chinese learned to make a lasting black ink. They mixed lampblack or charcoal with glue or various gums. Water was added when the ink was to be used. Even today, the so-called China or India inks, used for drawing and for permanent records, are made on the same principle.

bathe and spend a night-out-on-the-town day. But that was a generalization.

Today Friday is the glamor day of the week, and Saturday is just a kind of misfit, recover, get-well-and-rake-the-leaves day which nobody really quite knows what to do with. It is for all those dull little projects you can't get done during the rest of the week.

The ghost walks on Friday now, and it is the day he gets paid that gives the working man his greatest lift. It is then that he likes to blow his gasket, climb on cloud No. 9, and sail serenely above his usual woes.

Double mankind's Fridays and you double mankind's misery. Double a man's pay and he will have twice as much fun. He will even willingly pay enough taxes to support his government in the style which it wants to become accustomed. And, as everybody knows, a happy government makes for happier people.

Naturally, the question arises, "If we put two Fridays in the calendar, what day of the week shall we drop?"

The unanimous answer, of course, is "Monday." Monday is the day without a friend, because nobody feels friendly on Monday, wants to be a friend on Monday, or listen to a friend on Monday. It is the day when men are most at war with themselves, their duties, and the whole human race.

It is the day when most men would prefer to be a tree. Anyone who can abolish dreary Monday and replace it with a second ecstatic Friday will do more than merely reform the calendar. He will turn the earth into a new Eden.

He will also make Tuesday awfully unpopular.

HIGGINS ACCEPTS AWARD. NEW YORK (UP) — Boston Red Sox manager Mike Higgins will accept the Sid Mercer award on behalf of Ted Williams at Sunday's annual dinner of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. The award is given annually by the New York writers for their choice as the "outstanding player of the year."

Soil Money Has to Be Rationed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government says increased interest in soil bank has necessitated rationing the half billion dollars authorized for farmer payments under the 1938 acreage reserve of the program.

The Agriculture Department said yesterday the action was designed to give producers in all areas an opportunity to share. In his budget message to Congress last week, President Eisenhower proposed abandoning the acreage reserve next year because of a lack of farmer interest.

The department announced allocation of the money, by crops, among the producing states. The states' shares will be apportioned among counties by state agricultural stabilization committees.

The allocations, by crop, include corn $174,000,000, compared with $195,045,000 obligated last year; rice, $12,610,000 and $15,400,000; and tobacco, $26,100,000 and $17,800,000.

An allocation of 10 million dollars for cotton was announced last week. That compares with $106,418,000 obligated last year. The allocation for spring wheat likely will be announced later this week.

Winter wheat agreements were signed last fall. The department said some state committees may be forced to suspend temporarily the making of agreements for acreage reserve participation until county allocations can be made.

In event of such suspension, county offices have been told to keep a list of farmers wishing to file agreements in the order in which they apply. If the sign-up is resumed later, agreements may be accepted in the order in which the names are listed.

News Briefs

CAIRO (UP) — The Egyptian government has agreed to reopen discussion on compensation for shareholders in the Suez Canal Co., it was announced today. World Bank Vice President W.A.B. Illiff made the announcement after two days of negotiations with the Egyptian government. He said the talks will reopen in Rome late February. ## $36 Million Fire in Paid Coupons

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state treasurer's office had a $36 million dollar fire today—employees burned that amount in paid off bonds and coupons.

Treasurer J. Vance Clayton said about 11 million dollars was in interest coupons collected since April 1933, nearly 17 millions consisted of highway refunding bonds and about 8½ millions was in the form of highway construction bonds.

Clayton said the bonds and coupons were burned in a closed incinerator at a lumber company.

Rice Bank Money Running Far Short

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas has been allocated $389,700 less than the amount involved in soil bank agreements already signed by rice farmers this year, it was announced yesterday.

Clyde Liebowitz, state administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said Arkansas will get $2,798,300.

Farmers agreed to place their rice acreage in reserve for a total of about $3,188,000 in compensation, he said.

This year's state allocation for rice soil bank agreements is about $488,000 less than the 1937 allocation.

DOROTHY DIX

Man's Business Deal Doesn't Land a Wife

Dear Dorothy Dix: Here's the problem I face. I'm a widower of 58, own my home, have a small farm that yields a good living, am a man of good reputation and habits. For many years I've known Nellie, now a woman of 45. I think she'd make a very good wife, and have proposed to her, but she says she's afraid we wouldn't make a go of it. I think she's of the opinion that love at our age shouldn't be any different than so-called "young love." I've tried to tell her that she's wrong, but am making no headway. I have three children but they're all married and no one wants to live with me. The lady likes my home, we're of the same religion and share many interests. Why do you suppose she balks at marriage? I think we could be very happy together.

Dear Benjie: You go about courting a wife as if you were hitting a cork. Any woman — no matter what her age — wants a little romance mixed in with the proposal. If you have nothing but a home to offer her, she doesn't need it — She has a good one already. I have no doubt you could be a very happy couple if you would pep up your courtship.

Dear Dorothy Dix: When I visited my aunt for Christmas vacation, I met a charming boy. She gave me permission to date him. He was going into service the following week, and asked me to write him. I never told my parents about the date (I'm only 15 and not allowed to date), so how can I explain it if I do write him?

Dear S. R.: Take your troubles to Mom. Ask permission to write the boy. If you knew dating was against parental edict, you had no business to accept the boy's invitation, auntie notwithstanding. Maybe the folks will relent and let you keep your correspondent. Ask: There's no better way to find out.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Through high school Walt was my sweetheart, then he suddenly turned around and married someone else. Apparently it was a forced marriage. Now he's been married over a year and we meet occasionally. He has asked me for a date. I still love him. I'll follow your advice, but please say it would be all right to go out with him once in awhile.

CANDY. Dear Candy: This young man's request for a date was an insult. His wife is getting the full disloyalty treatment from him, and his choice of you as second best certainly isn't flattering. I hope you do take my advice: slap his face if he asks again.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a divorcee with two daughters, one of them married. My son-in-law is impossible. He's selfish, domineering and I cannot tolerate him. I think my daughter would like to leave him, but is afraid. He's mean to their small baby, which makes me terribly nervous.

D. C. Dear D. C.: Your son-in-law is your daughter's problem. Let her handle it.

American Loop to Play More at Night

CHICAGO (AP) — The American League will play a record high of 249 night games the coming season.

The junior circuit's 1938 slate starts April 14 with Boston at Washington for the traditional presidential opener.

The April 15 opening round includes Kansas City at Cleveland; Washington at Baltimore; New York at Boston; and Detroit at Chicago. The previous night game high was 237 last year, although weather permitted only 225 to be played.

Baltimore has the most night games, 48, followed by Kansas City with 47.

Secondary home openers April 18 include Chicago at Kansas City.

Committee Okays Appointment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved President Eisenhower's nomination of William P. Rogers to be attorney general.

Rogers has been serving since last Nov. 8, when Eisenhower appointed him during the congressional recess to succeed Herbert Brownell.

Missouri Man Killed by Train

STASBURG, Mo. (UP) — Blaine Alley, 60, Kingsville, Mo., was killed last night when he was hit by a Missouri Pacific train about two miles west of here.

Alley, a section hand, was sweeping switches at the time. Stasburg is about 40 miles east of Kansas City. Highway patrolmen did not blame the accident on yesterday's snow storm. The train engineer was not arrested.

EGYPTIAN WINS EASILY. COLOGNE, Germany (UP) — Former Wimbledon champion Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt had an easy time beating Arthur Schreier of Germany, 6-2, 6-4, Wednesday in the German indoor tennis championships. The win moved the self-styled "Czech" into the quarter-finals.

centered in Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee and Louisiana, with some losses in Florida, Minnesota and nearby areas.

Before the subcommittee headed by Sen. Holland (D-Mo.) was a proposal by Sens. Eastland (D-Miss.), Fulbright (D-Ark.), Symington (D-Mo.), Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Allott (R-Colo.), that the Farm Credit Administration be authorized to provide 200 million dollars in credit through the Production Credit Association as and plant this year's crops.

Rep. Whitton (D-Miss.) has suggested that the Farmers Home Administration be authorized to insure private bank loans to farmers and also to participate in the loans if the banks lack funds.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.) told the Senate Banking Committee yesterday that if the financial gap is not closed, the result might be disaster. He compared the situation to the depression days of the 1930s.

One suggested approach would authorize the Small Business Administration to make loans to tide small businessmen over until the farmers get back on their feet.

The banking committee etc.

Jimmy Foxx Going Back to Baseball

BOSTON (AP)—A smiling Jimmy Foxx is going to the ball park again in the game he loves—as a baseball coach.

Found penniless in Miami last week, Foxx has accepted a job as coach for the Boston Red Sox farm team at Minneapolis in the American Assn.

In addition, old Double X will serve as a batting instructor for the entire Red Sox organization whenever the need for special help to a player arises.

The announcement was made yesterday in the office of James Silin, Foxx' business manager. It was Silin who discovered the plight of Foxx and who subsequently helped him choose from the 250 offers for employment which came to Foxx.

Joe McKenney, Red Sox publicist, conveyed a message from General Manager Joe Cronin who had left for New York.

"It is with great personal pleasure to Tom Yawkey (Red Sox owner) and myself and pleasure for the whole organization to have Jim back in baseball where he belongs."

Foxx, second only to Babe Ruth in major league home runs with 634, hit .325 during his long career in the big time.

Brown Favored to Beat Williams

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lightweight champion Joe Brown, who wants to quit the ring after this year, is a heavy favorite to beat Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams of Washington in their 10-round, non-title scrap last night.

Brown, 31-year-old New Orleans veteran, is shooting for his 63th triumph in a career that began in 1946. Unless he changes his mind, that career is on its last leg.

Odds were steep that he would whip Sonny Boy, only 27, who has been in 25 bouts against the champ.

The contest may be seen and heard over the customary Friday night TV-radio network (NBC, 9 p. m. CST).

Bradley Win Leaves Jumble in Mo. Valley

By DON WEISS
The Associated Press
Bradley's 92-83 victory over Wichita last night leaves a jumble in the Missouri Valley Conference standings, only slightly less puzzling than a league lineup that has seen shifts of seven schools in recent years.

Cincinnati seems in the best shape now to pick off major honors. Oscar Robertson & Co. will have the home court advantage in five of their last six conference games, starting with Wichita Saturday night.

Bobby Lee Mason scored 20 points and Barney Cable 20 as Bradley belted Wichita out of the top spot last night at Peoria, Ill. The Braves, bouncing back from Monday's nonconference upset loss to Portland, held a 47-37 half-time lead.

Wiggins, Polk on All-Star List

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Halfback Bruce Fullerton of Little Rock Central High has been named to the 12-man prep All America team picked by the Wiggins-Wisemen of America, an Oklahoma City fraternal organization.

The Wisemen sponsor the annual Prep All America Football Game in Memphis, and Fullerton and other Arkansas' named in the All America squad, announced yesterday, are eligible to compete in this year's game.

Quarterback Sonny Holmes of Forrest City was named to the second team and Little Rock end full backs made the fourth unit.

Halfback Elmer (Bee) Lindsey of Forrest City has listed on the sixth team and Forrest City tackle John Childress and Hope center Lynn Wiggins made the seventh unit.

Nine other Arkansas players were listed on the honorable mention. They were backs Jerry Kilian of DeQueen, Darrell Bushmaster of Van Buren, Ronald Burris of Texarkana, Tommy Polk of Hope, Glendon Franks of Crawfordsville, Bill Framel of Fort Smith, Amos, Ronnie Pyle of Little Rock Catholic and Tommy Brashear of El Dorado and center Jerry Moore of Harrison.

Porks Manage to Overcome Tulsa 50-43

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas' rusty Razorbacks, showing the effects of a 10-day layoff for mid-term exams, rallied in the last four minutes last night for a respectable 50-43 victory over Tulsa in an intercollegiate basketball game.

The victory was nowhere as impressive as Arkansas' 79-61 decision over the Hurricane, but Coach Glen Rose drew some satisfaction from learning that the Porks can win, even when they aren't hitting.

Arkansas' field goal percentage was a poor 25 per cent, compared to a near 40 average. But Tulsa couldn't hit either, and Arkansas moved away after breaking a 44-41 tie with 4:10 left.

Again it was Little Fred Grim who showed the way for Arkansas. Grim scored 14 points, high for the night, and he held Tulsa ace Larry Wendell to only eight markers. Wendell tallied 26 in the first game.

Grim's set shot was the tie-breaker and Arkansas went into a semi-salt. Jay Carpenter and Dick Rittman cashed free throws to buy four points of margin, but Tulsa's Pete Collier sank a field goal to make it two again.

The Porks played cautiously and defended expertly in the closing minutes, and a free throw and a field goal from Larry Grisham and a fielder by Harry Thompson gave Arkansas breathing room at the end.

The victory was Arkansas' sixth in a row and gave the Hogs an 11-3 mark for the season.

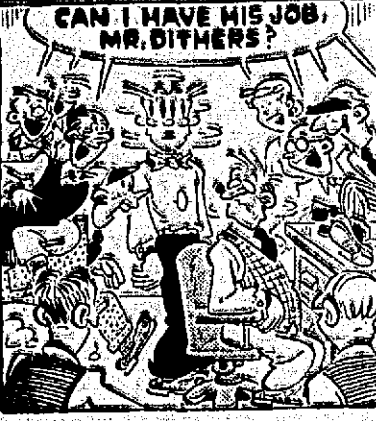

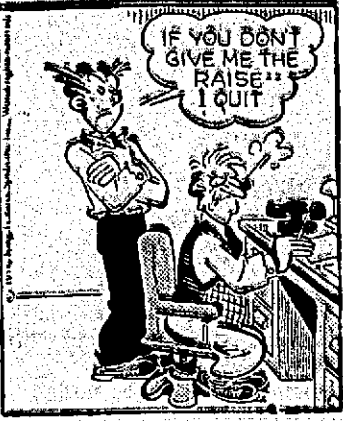

Arkansas' next conference game is Jan. 28, against Texas A&M in Barnhill Field House.

Negro Youth Rapes Girl in School

NEW YORK (AP)—The rape of a 15-year-old girl in the basement of a Brooklyn junior high school has brought a new grand jury demand for stationing policemen in every school.

School Supt. William Jansen replied that there was a patrolman in the school when the attack occurred Tuesday.

"As deplorable as this situation is, it does not appear that the presence of a policeman in a school can prevent a thing like that," said Jansen.

The Kings County grand jury recommended last November that a policeman be placed in each of the city's 918 public schools. School and police officials rejected the idea.

The grand jury now has reiterated its suggestion in a statement that said in part: "How long must we wait? Until some one is killed? We cannot and will not countenance indifference to the safety of the children."

Police again arrested a 15-year-old Negro boy questioned earlier, then released, in connection with the rape.

The girl, who is white, and the boy are both pupils at John Marshall Junior High School. Because of their ages, names were not released.

Police said a check of the boy's story and a laboratory test of his clothes led them to doubt his account of his whereabouts at the time of the rape. They said the boy admitted being out of his classroom for about 15 minutes.

The girl did not recognize the youth as her assailant. She wears thick glasses and has had two operations for cataracts in the year.

She was raped after she had been forced at knifepoint to accompany her attacker to the basement. She was on an errand for her teacher.

21 Areas in U. S. Have Labor Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reporting rising unemployment, the Labor Department says it has designated 21 new areas as having substantial labor surpluses.

The additions raised the total of such areas to 45. A year ago, 19 areas were so designated. These areas qualify for special consideration in government contract award.

In a report yesterday, the department said major industrial centers reported increased unemployment in late 1957, and that obsolescence was still rising in many areas in early January.

In some areas the announcement said, unemployment has reached the highest level since the business declines of 1949 and 1953-54. But it added employer opinion indicates a possibility the employment decline may taper off in about two months.

NOT FOR SALE—Handmade and prized beyond price is this tiny race car, the work of Phillip Miller, left, and William Geyer, of Upper Arlington, Ohio. It is a gleaming two-thirds size copy of the most dazzling of early European grand prix racing cars—the Type 35 Bugatti. From horseshoe-shaped grille to the tip of its boat-tail, it accurately duplicates an automobile produced by Ettore Bugatti, an Italian who produced about 9,500 of the world's finest cars in France. Miller, a Bugatti fan, and Geyer, a car-loving machinist, spent two years of evenings, Saturdays and Sundays on the project. Miller has shown the car at sports car races, where it has never failed to draw a crowd of admirers. But the Miller-Geyer Bugatti is not for sale—on any terms.

"SPORTSCAR" HAY BALER—Farmers attending the Pennsylvania Farm Show at Harrisburg will get a look at a new hay baler so highly maneuverable it has been called the "sportscar of farm machinery." It is pictured above, being demonstrated near New Holland, Pa. Called the Super-Hayliner, it picks up hay from hay rows, sweeps it into the baler. Here measured amounts of hay are whisked into the bale chamber. By special tension controls, the farmer can control the density of the bale and automatically get the bale-weight he wants. Bales are tied with either wire or twine, as preferred.

TEXAS RABBIT—Like everything else in Texas, the snow sculptures are something extra. This giant rabbit is the work of E. C. Woodruff, left, and R. D. Hildebrand, both of Midland, Tex. Midland was hit by a heavy snowfall, but as you can see from these sport-shirted sculptors, it didn't last long.

At the Sebastian ranch, the ominous glow of war's sure dawn was steadily thickening. Troops from Yreka along with their slow-moving wagons of supply came through in increasing numbers. All of this quickening activity built a deepening sense of anxiety in Constance Ashland.

She had heard talk of the great sprawling lake out there. The lake, men called it, where the wildfowl swarmed beyond all counting. Then there was the land that touched the lower end of the lake and spread far to the south of it. This stretch men spoke of as the lava beds.

In an additional way she worried about her brother. For young Lieut. Phil Ashland and Kitty Dutra were showing more than a casual interest in each other. At first it had been just an exchange of glances, with open admiration in Phil's eyes and a quiet smiling by Kitty Dutra. Then, on some pretense or other, Phil began dropping in at the ranch house more and more often, when always his glance would eagerly seek out the dark, quiet young widow and he would find some cause to speak to her.

Phil, Connie told herself, was such a boy, and with all his future ahead of him.

She set out to remind him of this one evening and was startled and dismayed when he stopped her abruptly.

"Whisper, Connie! I don't mind you fussing over me a little. It makes you happy, but in some things you'll not interfere, and this is one of them. I'm a man, not a little boy."

"But, Phil, she's older. And a widow. And—"

"She's younger than me by a year," Phil cut in. "A widow, yes. But still just a girl, who, from what Ward Sebastian has said, has found little happiness in life. I see Kitty Dutra as a very wonderful person, so don't make me quarrel with you over that fact!"

After which, Connie set out to thoroughly dislike Kitty Dutra and without any great success, for Kitty met chill and stiffness with warmth and kindness.

Through the slow, cold grayness of another early winter morning, a dispatch rider spurred in from the east and set his mount to a steaming halt at the door of Major Ashland's minutes later, Phil Ashland came quickly to the ranch house.

Phil was all exultant eagerness. "We're going up! At last there's the real business of a soldier ahead."

"You—you and Uncle Ross, too?" Connie tried to keep the tremor from her voice.

"Everybody," affirmed Phil. "Now! Things to do!"

Within an hour troops were leaving the ranch, taking that lonely road to the east. Finally, but one last wagon remained. Major Ashland came over to the house, bowed over the hands of Mrs. Gayle and Kitty Dutra, put his arm about Connie and brushed her cheeks with his lips. The saltiness of a stray tear was on that cheek and the major spoke with gentle gentleness.

"Now—now! No tears, youngster. Everything will be all right."

He went out, a solid, dependable soldier, never destined for greatness, but owning the comforting knowledge that it was his efforts, and those of many like him, that brought greatness to the exalted few.

When Phil came in again, he had shed his first exuberance, was now gravely sober. He thanked Mrs. Gayle for all her care and kindness. He held Connie tightly, shielding her with soft affection when her tears began getting away from her. Then he turned to Kitty Dutra.

It seemed to Connie that neither of these two silent people moved so much as a finger for a long minute. Then Phil stopped forward and Kitty came swiftly to meet him and his open arms.

Half an hour later, Kitty came into Connie's room.

"You don't approve, do you?" Kitty said quietly.

"Would it make any difference?"

"Of course," Kitty said simply. "I so deeply want you to approve."

Beef and Pork on Block of Meat Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Supermarket meat men, battling what one of them called "the roughest month to six weeks" in memory, turned to their old standbys, beef and pork, this week in an attempt to find an attractive meat bargain.

They are featuring pot roasts, rib roasts, steak, chuck and round roasts of beef and a variety of pork cuts in store displays and advertisements. Beef and pork prices are comparatively high, but other meats are even more so.

Leg of lamb is reported 2 to 4 cents a pound more expensive in some sections and frying chickens are 4 to 10 cents a pound higher in many areas.

Housewives found little comfort in cost of living figures for December which showed food prices up one-tenth of one percent. Nor was there any encouragement in word that wholesale food prices this week rose for the fourth straight week.

Best buy in the vegetable bins is a bag of potatoes, although indications are they may get expensive in the months ahead.

Good buys also include broccoli, onions, iceberg lettuce, celery, cabbage, carrots, sweet potatoes and greens—spinach, kale and collards. Onions and lettuce are edging upward in price.

Cauliflower and peas are moderately priced, while tomatoes are moderate to high and tend toward irregular quality. High prices and

I know what you are thinking. That I am a widow, whose husband not very long ago met violent death at the hands of the Madones. So, I should be deep-sunk in depths of mourning, unable to even look at another man. Do—do you mind listening?"

"Not at all."

"Suppose," Kitty went on, "that I told you my marriage to Nick Dutra was the headlong folly of a desperate girl, so frantic to get away from the brutal environment of a drunken father and a renegade brother, she never fully considered what another might hold. I—I found out, all right. I stayed with Nick Dutra because I'd made a bargain."

"Quite naturally, Nick's death shocked me, and I was deeply sorry. But I could not truly mourn him. Connie, I'm being shamelessly honest about this."

"Knowing Phil," Connie said gravely, "I know how completely real and unselfish it will be with him. Will it be the same with you, Kitty?"

"I—I wouldn't be here talking to you if there was even the slightest chance of it being less than that."

In a softening rush of understanding, Connie held out her arms.

"Why then," she said, none too steady, "I'm glad, Kitty. And truly!"

Says West Must Negotiate

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange said today the Western democracies "must demonstrate by deed that we have an honest and sincere desire to negotiate" a cold war settlement.

"We must assume until further notice that the Soviet Union now sincerely wants a genuine relaxation of tensions," Lange said in a foreign policy speech to Parliament.

Lange joined the other NATO allies in turning aside Soviet proposals for an East-West summit conference within three months. He called for confidential contact in advance to ensure that such a conference shall yield results.

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP)—W. B. Smith, 83, who founded a dry goods store which is one of Van Buren's oldest business establishments, died at his home here today. Smith operated a similar business at Alma before moving to Van Buren, and at one time taught school. The Van Buren store now is operated by a son, Willie B. Smith. Other survivors include another son and two daughters.

Benson Plan Favorable in Mail Received

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported today that its mail is running about 10-1 in favor of views of Secretary Benson that farm price supports should be lower and that production controls should be eased.

The agency said that since Benson outlined these views at a Senate Agriculture Committee hearing Jan. 17, it has received 69 letters and cards expressing opinions. It said 63 agreed with Benson and 6 disagreed.

"Most of the correspondence was hand written and appeared," the committee who questioned from rural people."

Benson's views were sharply criticized by several members of the committee who questioned him.

The six letters disagreeing with the secretary were said to have come from Kansas, New York, Nebraska, Tennessee and Minnesota. States supplying most of the correspondence were said to be New Jersey, Texas, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.
